Hi! I'm _____ and I love to _____. My favorite color is _____ and I could eat one thousand pounds of _____! It's Christmas and it's been an interesting year. I'm part of The Sunshine Sister Club. We talk about the things going on in our life and we pray together. But this year, Andie is _____, and I think it's because her cat, Hallie, is missing!

We aren't sure exactly what happened.

Andie thought it would be fun to do a magic trick at our last meeting. Have you ever seen when a magician pulls a _____ out of his _____? Sarah says science can explain the trick. Caroline says it's a GRAND PERFORMANCE! Sam thinks it's a problem to solve, tapping her teal pen against her sparkly teal notebook, trying to figure out what was an illusion, or something that tricks your senses into thinking something is real that isn't.

But back to Andie's magic trick. She was going to make Hallie disappear.

And she did!

But that's the problem. Andie didn't mean for Hallie to really disappear.

So, now we are out searching Newport at the _____, because it's one of Hallie's favorite places. Emma brought Gus to try to sniff her out. Gus and Hallie are best friends.

Gus suddenly stops and barks! He _____ toward a tree. We look up hoping to see Hallie. It's not. It's a _____.

We all sigh.

"I'm sorry, Andie," I tell her as I pat her _____.

"I didn't mean to make her disappear for real," Andie sobs.

"I think it's time to pray for a Christmas miracle," Sam suggests.

We all hold _____.

"Dear Jesus," Sam begins. "We don't know where Hallie is, but You do. Please keep her safe and bring her back home."

"Amen," we all say.

We get back into the _____ to go home. We arrive at Andie's house first and I watch as her _____ grow big.

"HALLIE?!" Andie screams.

She runs toward the nativity scene that is set up in her front yard. Hallie is curled up in the manger beside baby Jesus.

Andie scoops up her cat and holds her tight. "Hallie!"

I look at Andie, then at Emma, Sarah, Sam, and Caroline.

It's a Christmas miracle!

Dear Jesus,

Thank You for bring Hallie home for Christmas.

Your Sonshine Sister,
